Three Officers, Five Councilors Elected to IASP Leadership
Terms begin at World Congress for President-Elect Lars Arendt-Nielsen of Denmark, Treasurer Allen Finley of Canada, Secretary Michael Nicholas of Australia, and five Councilors: Sushma Bhatnagar (India), Serge Perrot (France), Andrew Rice (UK), Emiko Senba (Japan), and Michele Sterling (Australia).

Volunteer for an IASP Working Group or Committee
Here is your chance to actively support IASP by joining one of our committees or working groups or volunteering your skills and expertise on a special project.

IASP Latin American Pain Camp Now Accepting Applications
The event in Mexico City, October 10-14, features Latin American and international pain-management experts. The preliminary program is now available, and registration is open.

Do you have a late-breaking poster abstract you would like considered for the World Congress? Here's what to do.

70 Topical Workshops Now Scheduled
6 Satellite Symposia Highlight Special Interests
Emirates and Oneworld Air Travel Discounts
Tour Yokohama, Tokyo, Kyoto and Nara, or Mt. Fuji and Hakone

Three New Books From IASP Press

Pain and the Conscious Brain, Luis Garcia-Larrea and Philip L. Jackson, eds., brings together more than 30 leaders from multiple fields to link the complex concept of pain to the equally complex notion of consciousness.

Are you working on a book and looking for a publisher? Consider publishing with IASP Press!
June Edition of PAIN Is Now Available. Editor's Choice articles include:

> Mesolimbic dopamine signaling in acute and chronic pain: implications for motivation, analgesia, and addiction
> Preliminary validation of the Michigan Body Map (Video)
> Trends and predictors of opioid use after total knee and total hip arthroplasty (Global Year)
> Brain activations during pain: a neuroimaging meta-analysis of patients with pain and healthy controls
> Experimental manipulations of pain catastrophizing influence pain levels in patients with chronic pain and healthy volunteers (Video)

>> PAIN Pictured: Pain and infection: pathogen detection by nociceptors

Download the 50 most cited articles in PAIN in 2015.

Follow PAIN on Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn

PAIN Reports, IASP’s New Open Access Journal, Is Now Accepting Submissions
The new multidisciplinary journal, which launches in July, will publish articles that advance clinical, applied, and basic research on pain. Brief reports, clinical and basic science research reports, case reports, clinical guidelines, and meeting proceedings are among the article types the journal welcomes. The submission site is now open.

Global Year Against Pain

Plan to Attend the Global Year Satellite Symposium at the World Congress, held in association with the SIG on Musculoskeletal Pain. View the program for “Is Joint Pain Unique or Does it Share Common Features with Other Musculoskeletal Pain Conditions?”

Read Part 2 of the interview with Lars Arendt-Nielsen and Serge Perrot, co-chairs of the Global Year Against Pain in the Joints.

Fact Sheets: 21 Available in 14 Languages
Is your language missing from this list? Please let us know if you would like to translate any of the Fact Sheets.

SIG and Chapters Corner

Portuguese Association for the Study of Pain Celebrates Pain Clinic’s 25 Years
Great progress, collaboration with local health officials on nation’s Madeira Island are recognized during three-day conference in April.

Australian Pain Society
In May, a Public Forum launching the Global Year Against Pain in the Joints in Darwin, Australia, included several speakers as part of the scientific meeting of the Australian Rheumatology Association. The Arthritis Foundation of South Australia has posted videos of three presentations from the forum -- Pain in Childhood Arthritis, Pain in Adult Inflammatory Arthritis, and Pain in Osteoarthritis. In addition, the Australian Pain Society posted a video to its Global Year webpage.

Rolf-Detlef Treede
Prof. Dr.med.
IASP President

Save the Date

Want to see your event listed on IASP’s calendar? Send us an email.
You are receiving this message because you signed up for email announcements from the International Association for the Study of Pain. To manage your email preferences or to unsubscribe from this email, please click preferences.

View this message in web browser